

Room at the Top of the Stairs

Verse 1

They remained in Jerusalem
Just as Jesus had told them to.
Millions there in Jerusalem
Oh, but only a faithful few.
In the room at the top of the stairs,
Sweetly singing and constant in prayer,
Then the Spirit came in like mighty rushing wind,
Filling all who were present there,
In the room at the top of the stairs...

Chorus

Lord, send down the fire
The Pentecostal fire
CONVERT LORD, SINNERS
Let the world be amazed
Lord send down the power, the Pentecostal power, convert Lord "Trinidad" and let the name of Jesus be praised!

Verse 2

Gathered there in Jerusalem,
There were people from every land,
Speaking so many languages,
How would they ever understand?
Everything the disciples would say,
About Jesus, the Truth and the Way?
But the people all heard and understood every word
For the Spirit of God was there,
As in the room at the top of the stairs.

Chorus

Verse 3

Peter stood and reminded them,
that Jesus came and had died for them.
And He had the power for saving them,
because He rose from the grave for them.
And all the people just stood there amazed,
"Peter, what must we do to be saved?"
And by the end of the day,
three thousand precious souls were saved,
all because of the fervent prayer:
In the room at the top of the stairs.

Chorus
