Far and Near the Field are Teeming

Verse 1

Far and near the fields are teeming
with the sheaves of ripened grain;
Far and near their gold is gleaming
O'er the sunny slope and plain.

Refrain

Lord of harvest, send forth reapers!
Hear us Lord, to Thee we cry;
Send them now the sheaves to gather,
Ere the harvest-time pass by.

Verse 2

Send them forth with morn's first beaming,
Send them in the noon-tides's glare;
When the sun's last rays are streaming,
bid them gather everywhere.

Refrain

Verse 3

O thou, whom thy Lord is sending,
gather now the sheaves of gold;
Heavenward then at evening wending
Thou shalt come with joy untold.

Crown Him with Many Crowns

Verse 1

Crown him with many crowns, the Lamb upon his throne,
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns all music but its own.
Awake, my soul, and sing; of him who died for thee,
and hail him as thy matchless King through all eternity.

Verse 2

Crown him the Lord of love! behold his hands and side,
those wounds, yet visible above, in beauty glorified;
No angel in the sky; Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bend his wondering eye
At mysteries so great.

Verse 3

Crown him the Lord of peace! whose power a scepter sways from pole to pole, that wars may cease, and all be prayer and praise.
His reign shall know no end, and round his pierced feet fair flowers of paradise extend their fragrance ever sweet.

Verse 4

Crown him the Lord of years; The potentate of time,
Creator of the rolling spheres, Ineffably sublime!
All hail, Redeemer, hail! For thou hast died for me;
thy praise shall never, never fail
throughout eternity.

I Love to Tell the Story

Verse 1

I love to tell the story of unseen things above,
of Jesus and his glory, of Jesus and his love.
I love to tell the story, because I know 'tis true;
it satisfies my longings as nothing else can do.

Refrain

I love to tell the story, 'twill be my theme in glory,
to tell the old, old story; of Jesus and his love.

Verse 2

I love to tell the story; more wonderful it seems than all the golden fancies of all our golden dreams.
I love to tell the story, it did so much for me;
and that is just the reason I tell it now to thee.

Refrain

Verse 3

I love to tell the story; 'tis pleasant to repeat what seems, each time I tell it, more wonderfully sweet.
I love to tell the story, for some have never heard
the message of salvation from God's own holy Word.

Refrain

Verse 4

I love to tell the story, for those who know it best seem hungering and thirsting to hear it like the rest.
And when, in scenes of glory, I sing the new, new song,
'twill be the old, old story that I have loved so long.

Ye Must Be Born Again

Verse 1

A ruler once came to Jesus by night,
To ask Him the way of salvation and light;
The Master made answer in words true and plain,
“Ye must be born again!”

Refrain

“Ye must be born again!”
“Ye must be born again!”
“I verily, verily say unto thee,
Ye must be born again!”

Verse 2

Ye children of men, attend to the word
So solemnly uttered by Jesus, the Lord,
And let not this message to you be in vain,
“Ye must be born again.”

Refrain

Verse 3

Oh, ye who would enter that glorious rest,
And sing with the ransomed the song of the blest;
The life everlasting if ye would obtain,
“Ye must be born again.”

This Is the Day of Rest

Verse 1

This is the day of rest;
Our failing strength renew;
On weary brain and troubled breast
Shed Thou Thy fresh'ning dew.

Verse 2

This is the day of peace;
Thy peace our spirits fill;
Bid Thou the blasts of discord cease,
The waves of strife be still.

Verse 3

This is the day of prayer;
Let earth to heav'n draw near;
Lift up our hearts to seek Thee there;
Come down to meet us here.

Verse 4

'This is the best of days;
Send forth Thy quick'ning breath,
And wake dead souls to love and praise,
O Vanquisher of death!
